CANTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

1200 S. Canton Center Rd.
Canton, Michigan 48188
(734) 397-0999

HOURS

Monday - Thursday 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.
Friday & Saturday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Sunday 12 noon to 6 p.m.

Dear Friends,

October 20, 1980 was a historic day in Canton Township. The very first library opened on the third floor of the township hall in 12,000 square feet of space. A staff of nine served Canton's population of 30,000 residents. From the beginning, the library was a popular destination. Vinyl records were hot items to check out and public typewriters were often in demand. The information technology of the day was a microfilm reader soon followed by a CD-ROM reader. The first fax machine was still a couple of years away.

Who could have guessed the changes that 25 years would bring? Over 100 staff members now serve our patrons in a 53,000 square foot state-of-the-art facility that includes wireless access and a network of over 100 workstations. Online databases, digital reference books and web sites are standard resources and people are as likely to check out books on CD and MP3 as they are print materials. Today, ebooks can be downloaded to your computer and/or PDA and then simply disappear when they're due back. It would have sounded like science fiction back then. And, in 1980, could we have imagined an Internet Branch library where you can browse for books and do your research from home? It has been a truly amazing quarter century.

In spite of the ever-changing information technology, Canton continues to be a community of readers. Our 63,000 patrons still enjoy checking out print books and magazines. The library remains a popular destination where people of all ages can take advantage of the high-speed connections to the online world of information or pick up a newspaper and sit in front of the fireplace with a cup of coffee from The Library Café. As we start our next 25 years, it is certain there will be incredible changes in the world of information. The library board and staff will strive to stay abreast of those changes and continue to be true to our mission. If you haven't visited the library lately, please come in and check us out. I'm sure you'll find something for everyone in the family.

Library Director

A Gift That Grows

Please consider a donation to the Canton Public Library Endowment Fund in your year-end giving. Your gift can reduce your Michigan Income Tax or Michigan Single Business Tax and greatly benefits the community. Discuss this matter with your financial advisor. Donate online using your credit card at www.cantonpl.org/donate. For more information, call the library at (734) 397-0999 or visit the website at www.cantonpl.org/info/endowment.html.

Canton Public Library Mission

Our mission is to serve the informational, educational, and recreational reading needs of all Canton citizens with a staff of skilled and knowledgeable employees in a welcoming environment. This mission will be achieved by a perpetual commitment to excellence in all aspects of its operation.

Cover to Cover

Looking for lively conversation and great reads? Join our monthly book discussions. Brown bag it during Lunch and a Book, or enjoy an Evening Book Discussion sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Lunch and a Book

November 10, 12 noon

Interpreter of Maladies by Jhumpa Lahiri: Navigating between the Indian traditions they've inherited and the baffling new world, the characters in Jhumpa Lahiri's elegant, touching stories seek love beyond the barriers of culture and generations.

Evening Book Discussions

November 21, 7 p.m.

The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini: Hosseini provides a raw look at Afghanistan's political situation while giving us a heartbreaking account of his two main characters — the privileged Amir and his less fortunate companion, Haddad. This compassionate story of disloyalty, redemption and heartbreak will open your heart and mind and you'll fall under the spell of what seems more memoir than novel.

December 19, 7 p.m.

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time by Mark Haddon: Christopher, an autistic boy, discovers his neighbor's dead dog and sets out to solve the mystery in his unique way. As Christopher narrates his story, we learn of his capable deductive reasoning and the complexities he faces in the social world. This compact novel brims with touching, ironic humor.

Connect with Your Neighbors

Indian Classical Dance

December 1, 7 p.m.

Learn about Bharatanatyam, the oldest of all classical dance forms in India. It is known for its grace, purity and tenderness as well as statuesque poses. Enjoy traditional Indian music and costumes as local resident Venky Lakshmanan leads the session.

Friends, Authors & Others

Thursday, November 17, 7 p.m. Michigan author Mark Terry visits to discuss his mystery, Dirty Deeds. Terry, a MSU graduate with a degree in microbiology and public health, uses his education and experience in the genetics lab at Henry Ford Hospital for great forensic material. Dorothy Bodooin of Royal Oak also joins us. Her Gothic mysteries always contain a canine character and take place in Michigan.

Learn to...With Friends

Learn to Appreciate Orchestra Canton

November 3, 7 p.m.

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to play in an orchestra? Or what a conductor does? Get an insider's view as Nan Washburn, conductor of Orchestra Canton, takes you behind the scenes and gives you the knowledge to make your next visit exciting, engaging and fun.

Use Your Card, Get a Prize

Now that you've got your own library card, use it to earn a prize. Just visit the library and sign up to get your READ punchcard. Every time you check out materials- books, magazines, CDs, or DVDs — show your check out receipt to the receptionist and get your card punched. After four punches, you get your prize. Choose from red or blue CD wallets or adjustable wristbands. The program ends January 31, 2006, so get your visits in before then.

Celebrate Children's Book Week: November 14 - 20, 2005

Since 1919, educators, librarians, booksellers, and families have celebrated Children's Book Week the week before Thanksgiving. Children's Book Week encourages young people to celebrate books and children's literature. The picture books about libraries listed below will help you celebrate this special week.

Book! Book! Book! by Deborah Bruss

When the children go back to school, the animals on the farm are bored so they head into the town's library to find something to do.

I.Q. Goes to the Library by Mary Ann Fraser

After going to the library with Mrs. Furber's class every day of Library Week, I.Q., the class pet, hopes to take out a funny book with his own library card.

Clarence the Copy Cat by Pat Lakin

Clarence, a cat who does not want to hurt mice or any other creatures, does not feel welcome anywhere until he discovers the Barnstable Library.

Beatrice Doesn't Want To by Laura Joffe Numeroff

On the third afternoon of going to the library with her brother Henry, Beatrice finally finds something she enjoys doing.

Anna's Tight Squeeze by Marian De Smet

When Anna gets locked in the bathroom at the library, reading is a good way to pass the time.

Carlo and the Really Nice Librarian by Jessica Spanyol

When Carlo the giraffe and Crackers the cat visit the new library, they meet Mrs. Chinca, a very friendly and helpful librarian.

Use MyAccount to Track Your Reading History

Have you checked out a book and started reading, only to discover you've already read it? Or lost your checkout receipt and can't remember how many items you need to return? You can track your materials easily by using MyAccount, an online feature from the library. From home or the library, log on to MyAccount at <https://catalog.cantonpl.org/patroninfo> and enter your name and library card number. Then select "Reading History." Select "opt in" in the bottom left corner and you've activated the program. You can track your reading history, see what materials you've returned and even selectively remove specific items from the list. To disable your Reading History, log in, select "remove all items" and chose "opt out" from the lower left corner. Reading History is not maintained for patrons who do not opt in to the service; however, patrons are advised that all library transactions are subject to provisions of the Patriot Act.

News About Fave Fives

This time last year the library's Internet Branch introduced Fave Fives — collections of five favorite titles (books, music, movies, CD-ROMs) built around a theme of your choice. The response has been big. There are enough new lists from our library staff and library users to introduce new reading, viewing and listening suggestions every week. Thank you for your participation, and keep those lists coming! Starting in January, look for our Fave Five displays as the library features favorites from Canton community leaders. Learn more about Fave Fives at www.cantonpl.org/favefive/.

Worth a Click

Secondhand Prose Steps Into the Limelight

Stop by the library and look for the winners of the summer essay contest, sponsored by the Friends of the Library and the Multicultural Initiative Committee, displayed on READ posters. Many contest entrants mentioned the Secondhand Prose Used Bookshop in their essay as one of their favorite spots in the library.

The shop is located next to the Internet Lab and is stocked with 10,000 used books, videos, DVDs, puzzles, software, CDs and audio tapes. Most books are a bargain at .50 or $1.00. Most AV materials are also $1. The monies raised by the used bookshop go to support materials and programs in the library. A gift of $4000 went to the Children's Department to purchase books for the Summer Reading Club participants and $5000 was given to the library as part of the Friends' commitment to the Endowment Fund.

You can help support the Friends in three ways: donate books, work in the shop or purchase items from the shop. Contact Marcia at (734) 397-0999 x121 for details.

Library Café Now Online

Wondering what's for lunch? Or what time the Library Café closes? Now it's online at www.cantonpl.org/info/cafe. Check out the seasonal menu specials, e-mail the Café Manager with your suggestions, or plan your lunch. Then when you're visiting the library, grab a quick cup of coffee or enjoy a hearty soup and sandwich.
